

Course announcement
Research evaluation and research project writing –
“CV and research project writing”
Prof.ssa Sara Amoroso e Prof.ssa Maria Laura De Bellis

Hours 4 – 0.5 cfu
Classes will be in English
Compulsory attendance

Final essay based on a set of questions provided on the first day. Final essay is compulsory to obtain cfu. Students will be asked to update their CV and to write a brief abstract on a possible research proposal they would like to submit.

ABSTRACT

Part I: The course aims to present methods of active job search, suggestions for preparing an effective curriculum vitae and advice for supporting a job interview that enhances one's skills in the academic field.

Part II: The course aims to provide tips on how to effectively write a research proposal. We want to provide a brief guide on how to transform the project idea into a clear and complete document to be presented to national and international institutions in order to obtain funding.

OBJECTIVES

Part I: 1) To improve the CV, including the Academic Web pages; 2) To improve the visibility of the personal research in the Academic context Part II: 1) To get an overview of the next European funding opportunities; 2) To be inspired by winning proposal; 3) To learn how developing a clear and convincing proposal.

✉ Register by sending email to:
tea.taraborelli@unich.it

For those not at University of Chieti-Pescara it is possible to follow the short course online: specify request when you register.

TIMETABLE
Thursday	15 October 2024	14.00	18.00